

1960 PLAINSMAN

The 1960 Plainsman

Presented by the Senior Class

of

Prairie City Community Schools

Prairie City, Iowa

To Mr. Dunkin

We, the Senior Class of 1960, are proud to dedicate this annual to you, Mr. Dunkin, for your guidance and understanding through our high school years. We truly appreciate your willing leadership and teachings, which we will always remember.

To the Class of 1960

I am sincerely grateful and appreciative for this honor. I wish I could express words of wisdom that would prove beneficial for each of you.

In senior social studies you learned that there are drives and desires that make us pursue goals for the present and the future. Two of these drives are security and recognition, both of which tie in with your degree of success in your future life. Develop a worthwhile goal that is within your reach and strive to attain it. You will have smaller destinations to reach and obstacles to overcome as you quest for the lifetime goal. But in this manner you will find real security and true recognition.

Always do your best at whatever task you undertake.

Again, thank you and best wishes for the future.

Orville J. Dunkin

Administration . . .

To the Class of 1960:

Now that you have reached the threshold of graduation, I hope that we have given all of you more than just custodial care. I realize that most of you worked very hard the thirteen years in school and the future will reward you accordingly. To the ones who did not fare so well academically, I am sure that life will give you every chance to use what you have learned to good advantage and provide you with the necessary tools to be a good citizen and participate in your government.

Education for all of you will continue for the remainder of your life and you will soon realize how little you know and how much more you wish you knew.

Best of luck and good wishes to each of you in what ever endeavor you attempt.

Scene. "The Purple Onion," a coffee house located near the growing metropolis of Percy, Iowa.

The Beatniks are having a banquet!

The owner of the notorious Purple Onion, Bill Elrod, has just arrived to help prepare for the beatnik finale. Following him is the connoisseur of Beatnik cooking, monsieur, Ron Van Zee. A quick inspection of the place shows that janitor, Larry Steenhoek, has the purple Onion meticulously clean, as usual.

Since dawn the industrious bean picker, Craig, has been picking beans in the coffee house's own bean patch, located behind the Purple Onion. Craig brings in the result of his day's labors, a beret 1/2 full of beans to the world famous bean roaster, Jarnigan, who is skillfully "flipping" them over the fire. In the meantime, the delicate aroma of the roasting beans wait past the sensitive nose of the official bean sniffer, Ronnie Vander Meyden.

The roar of a powerful motor, accompanied by the screeching of brakes announces the arrival of the food delivery truck driven by Joycie Birkenholtz.

And just in time, for here comes Bruce, the "beatenest of the beatniks" to take up his usual position near the piano where "cool fingers" Vander Velden, is trying out his latest composition. He is accompanied by Charlotte "rhythm" Perkey on the bongo drums and Dennis Miller, famous flute player.

With the guests in their places, the banquet is about to begin. A snap of the fingers brings the waiters, Bob Farrer and Garry Cross, rushing in with their trays. A quick glance around the onion palace shows three crazed artists, Brian Wilson, Jerry Koder, and Silvan Van Wyk, nervously sketching as they listen to David Hinckley reading on original composition.

Oh, what's this now? None other than Glenda Samson the meter maid with a summons for Bruce Van Zee. He's done it again--parked his Volkswagon under the fender of Silvan's Cadillac convertible.

The festivities are just resumed when a squeal of the brakes is heard. Who has arrived? None other than the famous star of stage and screen, Mr. Ralph Waddle, chauffeured by James "Wheels" McKlveen. They have arrived just in time to hear the popular "Stinksten" Trio of Gene, Art, and Les sing. They accompany the dance team composed of "Legs" Telfer and "Swivel Hips" Sandy. This team causes such a reaction that Linda, the bouncer, rushes in to put an end to the gay festivities.

Class History

As the doors of PCHS swung open on September 4, 1956, 30 Green Freshmen entered to form the class with the largest number of boys ever to enter this high school in one class. During the freshman year we lost Melvin Neely. At initiation we dressed as comic strip characters. Mrs. Koss was our sponsor and chaperoned us to two class parties.

We started our sophomore year with twenty-nine members and chose Mrs. Koss again as our class sponsor. In our sophomore year we were caught up in the whirlwind of school activities, and participated actively in many activities.

Twenty-seven students were in our Junior class. Glen Aalbers, Donald Sille, and Carroll Nearmeyer were no longer with us. On November 14, 1958, we presented our class play "Mystery in the Library," a mystery-comedy in three acts, under the direction of Mrs. Shultice. Mrs. Wright helped us run the Junior concession stand at football and basketball games. In this way we raised the money necessary to hold the Junior-Senior banquet May 9, 1959, at the Savory Hotel. The theme of the banquet was "Mardi Gras" and approximately 80 guests were served. We began to see the seriousness of school work and began to make plans for the future.

During our Senior year our class consisted of twenty-six members. Our year began without Mary Hardenburg and Melvin McReynolds, but we gained Charlotte Perkey.

Our year started off excitingly with the initiation of the Freshmen. Other exciting events which took place were the operetta "The Singing Freshman," in which some Seniors participated, and the banquet which was held at the Cloud Room.

The Baccalaureate Service on May 22 and Commencement on May 24 ended the journey over the road of secondary education. Though not admitted, all felt a genuine feeling of regret in leaving high school and entering life; keeping in mind all of the many pleasant memories of the days at Prairie City High School.

THE LINE-UP!

High School Operetta

The Singing Freshman

May 13, 1960

Mary, a student from Yoleanova, takes a summer trip abroad. She visits the small country of Magonia and while there becomes good friends with the Princess of that country, Zinita. The Princess decides to come to America for her education, and because she wishes to be very democratic takes a job as a waitress in Pop Jones' Cafe, the college hangout. Gordon, a farm boy with a good voice, also works at this cafe and the two fall in love--only to be thwarted by the difference in their social positions, and the fact that Zinita is to be betrothed to the Prince of Olgania. However, the students and others take matters into their own hands and bring about a happy solution.
